

Stanah Primary School
Home-School Agreement
2020-2021

The school will try to:

- ✚ Uphold our 'Vision' for every child to enjoy learning and develop confidence, independence and a feeling of self-worth which they will carry forward in to their future lives. Within a caring, supportive and stimulating environment, we aim for all our children to achieve their best and develop into caring, thoughtful individuals with a life long enthusiasm for learning.
- ✚ Develop the moral, social, spiritual and cultural awareness of your child ensuring that it is an integral part of the school ethos.
- ✚ Provide a high standard of teaching, delivering a broad and balanced curriculum, to meet the needs of the children regardless of ability
- ✚ Keep your child safe and secure whilst in our care
- ✚ Treat and regard all parents as partners in learning
- ✚ Keep you informed about your child's progress, through parents' evenings, written reports and individual discussions
- ✚ Keep you informed about school activities through weekly newsletters, the school website, text messages, Dojo, Facebook and meetings.
- ✚ Consult you and keep you informed about homework policy, and provide guidance on how you can help your child at home. Set and mark homework, in line with our policy.
- ✚ Inform you if there is a problem with the attendance, punctuality or behaviour of your child

Together, we will try to:

- ✚ Nurture links between home, school and the local community to cultivate the foundations of mutual respect and responsibility.
- ✚ Support each child and help him / her to develop his / her full potential
