Agreement

The school

We will aim to:

- provide quality first teaching which meets the needs of all learners
- provide a curriculum which enables our children to be prepared for the modern world; provide the appropriate cultural capital so they can become successful citizens in our community
- challenge and support all children reach their full potential
- encourage the children to be fully active in their learning so that they know their strengths, areas for development and next steps
- encourage the children to adopt a 'growth mindset' so that they are resilient and embrace new challenges
- encourage the children to be independent yet ask questions and seek advice from others when needed
- provide opportunities for the children to become self-regulated learners
- model, provide opportunities and encourage the children to uphold the Stanah values
- model positive interactions to show the children how to be respectful and polite
- encourage children to understand their role in the wider community
- communicate effectively with parents about general school issues, work done in school and the progress of their child
- listen openly to children's/parents' problems and concerns connected with school work or relationships
- be welcoming and provide opportunities for parental involvement in school life
